Evangelization and Catechesis in the Mission of the Church

Summer 2017

This termly mail-out gives information about events and courses this term, and is intended for

- catechists in parishes and chaplaincies,
- all engaged in faith formation,
- members of Parish Pastoral Councils and Evangelization Teams,
- school Heads of RE / RE Co-ordinators and SENCOs,
- priests and deacons.

The On Offer is designed so that the centre pages, in particular, can be pinned to a noticeboard as an A3 landscape poster with a selection of our upcoming events.

Please also pass on these On Offer leaflets to the people in these categories, and where relevant please advertise them in Sunday newsletters. More copies are available by phoning the CCF or by downloading them from our new website (same address as before) www.ccftootingbec.org.uk.

Of particular interest in this edition:

- Our now 'traditional' post-Easter talks at the Amigo Hall will this year be on the Holy Spirit, see the blue panel inside for a list of speakers and dates. We have a great looking line up this year.
- Training for Parish Sacristans with Paul Moynihan at the Cathedral on 6 May
- A seminar for all those with an interest in what happens after Confirmation on Saturday 13 May
- Our annual day of celebration at the Friars, Aylesford with those with disabilities. It is always such a joyous and rich occasion. Please consider coming along to share in our celebrations.
- We are delighted that Michael Dopp will be coming to the CCF on Wednesday 24 May to talk about his evangelization programme Relit which is proving such a success in his native Canada.

Our brand new website carries all the latest information and events so please bookmark it to your list of favourites. Please also consider liking the CCF's Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/ccfsouthwark>

One more item of exciting news, a new location for the CCRS (the Catholic Certificate in Religious Studies) is to open for the 2017/18 academic year, see the back page for more information.
